

Hidden amidst 353
acres of rolling Virginia countryside in northern Albemarle this English country manor rests beneath the shadow of ancient majestic oaks

Whitehart Country Estate

The Manor Home

The Bob Paxton designed and Shelter Associated-built 8500 square foot residence is constructed with superb quality materials and craftsmanship. The interior features heart of pine floors, impressive woodwork and paneling throughout, high-end kitchen, large stone fireplaces and 11 foot ceilings.

Home Features

- ✦ Dining room features 11' ceilings and majestic views of the Blue Ridge Mountains
- ✦ Kitchen with Viking cooktop and three ovens
- ✦ Second floor catwalk hallway that overlooks the great room
- ✦ Geothermal heating & cooling

Forest and Field

The property consists of 200 acres of rolling pasture and 153 acres of hard woods with numerous ponds, a year round stream and panoramic mountain and pastoral views. The land, which holds 3 division rights, is under conservation easement and ajoins other eased properties.

